Portland group submits bid for MLS franchise

Statesman Journal

PORTLAND — Backers of a plan to put a Major League Soccer franchise in Portland submitted a formal bid Tuesday to the MLS.

A statement by Shortstop, LLC president Merrit Paulson on behalf of the organizers indicated that the group expects a response to their application by March 2009 at the latest.

MLS has 14 franchises, with Seattle joining in 2009 and Philadelphia in 2010. The league said it plans to announce the admission of two more franchises by the spring. Those new teams would begin play in the 2011 season.

Paulson owns the Portland Timbers soccer team and the Portland Beavers minor league baseball team.

from 10 yards out past McNary goalkeeper Kraig Massee with 2:34 left in the half.

The Celtics maintained offensive pressure for the majority of the first half, but it was the Saxons who capitalized on their opportunity.

"During practice we do a lot of shooting, we work on composure," Cortes said. "That goal, I stayed focused."

For most of the second half, South Salem controlled the possession, but after many shots against McNary's goal, the Saxons couldn't break through.

In the final 10 minutes, McNary got organized on offense and had several good shots, including one from Steven Rodriguez which bounced off the cross bar, before breaking through with Beltran's goal.

"We just needed to pressure more the defense," McNary forward Eric Zepeda said. "That's what cost us a first goal. We weren't pressuring. We played good in the second half."

The Celtics marked Zepeda tightly throughout the match with two or three defenders at a time.

As the match moved on, Zepeda often took to the wing to allow teammates more direct shots at goal.

"We just wanted to shut down Zepeda," Foster said. "We wanted to pay special attention to him and not let him get space and be able to penetrate our defense because we know he's the leading scorer from last year. He has a good shot, that's how they get a lot of their goals."

Both teams had opportunities to take outright possession of the conference lead with a win, but the tie leaves the league's outcome little different than it was before the match.

But in a defensive match such as Tuesday's, a tie is a positive result.

"I was happy for 77 minutes, then unhappy for three minutes," Johansen said. "I'm kind of a defensive coach. I try to preach the importance of defense. I'm a firm believer in the defense wins championships mantra. We just were hanging on and hanging on and hanging on, we just couldn't quite hang on long enough.

"We need to be just a little bit better. We need to be three minutes better."

receivers Brandon Gibson and Jeshua Anderson have been solid. Gibson (36 receptions, 460 yards, two touchdowns) ranks second in the Pac-10 in receptions per game and receiving yards.

Injuries have taken a toll on the Cougars, whose top three quarterbacks on the depth chart are freshmen. Marshall Lobbestael is expected to make his third career start Saturday. He is the third starting quarterback for WSU this season.

Lyle Moevao has been under center in every game for the Beavers and leads the Pac-10 with 1,402 yards passing (280.4 yards per game).

Sean Canfield, who is on the comeback trail following off-season surgery to repair a torn labrum in his left shoulder, has moved into the backup quarterback role. The junior signal callers split time last season.

The Beavers 2-3 overall record matches their mark of the last two years through five games. Those teams finished strong at 10-4 and 9-4.

Note: Split end Sammie Stroughter (hip pointer), cornerback Brandon Hughes (hamstring), and safety Al Afalava (groin) are expected to play Saturday.

Oregon State–Utah report card

OFFENSE: The Beavers had 405 yards in total offense. Lyle Moevao completed 21 of 31 passes for 313 yards and two touchdowns. Jacquizz Rodgers followed up his 186-yard breakout game against USC with 101 yards on 25 carries and a touchdown. Rodgers also had four receptions for 76 yards, and older brother James had five catches for 82 yards. Sammie Stroughter has been limited with a hip pointer and had just two receptions for 32 yards.
GRADE: B

DEFENSE: The Beavers were unable to make stops with the game on the line. After taking a 28-20 lead with 2:18 remaining, Utah marched downfield in less than a minute to tie the game on a 25-yard touchdown pass and 2-point conversion. The Utes got the ball back on their on their 45-yard line with 1:06 left and got in position for Louie Sakoda's game-winning 37-yard field goal as time expired. OSU's pass defense broke down on the Utes' last two possessions. The Beavers gave up 337 total yards and forced two turnovers. Safety Al Afalava returned an interception for a touchdown.
GRADE: C

SPECIAL TEAMS: Justin Kahut converted a 37-yard field goal, but missed from 43 yards, and missed an extra point after OSU's first touchdown that affected the game. The Beavers came up empty on two 2-point conversion attempts. OSU gave up a 79-yard kickoff return. Johnny Hekker averaged 38.3 yards on six punts, with two downed inside the 20, but he was unable to come up with a big kick late in the fourth quarter when the Beavers needed it most.
GRADE: D-

OVERALL: Championship football teams don't give up 11 points in the final 89 seconds of a game. A late pass interference call on safety Greg Laybourn on Utah's 2-point conversion attempt to tie the game was questionable, but the Beavers played well enough to win. An upset at then-No. 15 Utah would have continued momentum from the USC game. OSU should not be disheartened by a narrow defeat on the road against a ranked team.
